

were invited and the first part of the evening was delightfully spent by getting the answers to the floral conundrums which were pinned on the walls of the parlor and halls. The ladies' first prize was won by Miss Blossom Mitchell and Miss May Hunter captured the consolation, while Mr. Wood Hicks and Mr. G. H. Hoffman were awarded the gentlemen's prizes. One corner of the dining room looked very inviting with its cut glass punch bowl and cups, presided over by Miss Irene Finch, while at the large table Miss Edith McComie and Blanche Vincent served ice cream and cake. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all. The club disbanded to reorganize with a new membership and will be known as the Lake club. Those present were the Misses May Hunter, Blossom Mitchell, Edith McComie, Beth Pitts, Hattie Carter, Lillian Gamble, Edith Dramer, Lillie Norris, Irene Finch, Bell Carnahan, Dennis Durnford, Edna Swenson, Messrs. Roy Stewart, G. E. Hoffman, Jess Hawkes, Al Finch, Irving Kerl, Art Bolton, Wood Hicks, Will Grimsdell, Tom Jackson and Howard Vincent.

Mrs. Andrew Beveridge entertained on Thursday at a delightful family luncheon for her aunt, Mrs. C. E. Wantland, who is here from Denver.

The second smoker given by the Hesperian club was a great success and all of the fifty guests present spent an enjoyable evening. The spacious club rooms were prettily decorated with cut flowers and the club color, lavender.

Tuneless music, furnished by a stringed orchestra, resounded through the rooms all evening and vocal and instrumental numbers by guests and members made the evening a most delightful one.

Professor Willis, a colored artist, gave a pleasing performance, after which light refreshments were served, closing the evening's entertainment.

OGDEN.

The S. O. O. B. ball Friday night, given for the benefit of the public library association, fully sustained the reputation of the charming hostesses for clever and successful entertaining. The affair was easily one of the memorable social events of the year, and some novel and interesting features were introduced in the dancing. These included the Arbor march, in which fifty couples participated, and the May pole quadrille, executed by the young ladies of the club. A pleasing novelty was the introduction of some confetti balls near the midnight hour, and with these the dancers pelted one another for a brief period.

An attempt of a number of the young men to repeat the May pole dance caused much amusement. The hall was decorated in red and white, the club colors, and was ablaze with light and color. Some fine creations in the way of new costumes were brought out.

Miss Wealthy Gibbons and Mr. Parley Woods were married in the temple at Salt Lake Wednesday last, and were given a reception the same evening at the new home on Adams avenue. The assembled guests were the immediate relatives of the popular young bride and groom.

Observe the Messenger Boy, how he Runs.

Is not this Unusual? It is Abnormal.

And its Cause? He is sent by a Man—To Fetch a Doctor?

—To Fetch a Book. What Book?

The Hound of the Baskervilles.

How Gratiated the Lion will be to get his Book so soon.

He will Not. Why so?

The Boy Knows of that Book. Well!

He will Dip into It. Yes?

And See the Name of Sherlock Holmes.

And then? He will Seat him on a Mossy Curb. And he will Read. And Read And Read.

But the Man. What of Him? He will Tear his Hair and Cuss. Is that All?

No. Presently he will Lake up Another $1.25 and will Hustle to the Bookstore himself.
